Obituary.

Mary Elizabeth Pew was born in Rock Castle County, Kentucky, May 1, 1842. She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Brown, at Bennington, Kansas, September 23, 1921, at the age of 79 years, 4 months and 22 days. In 1868 she came with her parents to Andrew County, Missouri. The family moved to Forest City, Mo., April 14th, 1870. She was united in marriage to Samuel Dickson. To this union six children were born, two dying in infancy. In 1897 the family moved to St. Joseph, Mo., where Mr. Dickson died August 3, 1899. Mrs. Dickson resided in St. Joseph, until 1909, since which time she has made her home with her children. She leaves one daughter, and three sons, Mrs. J. S. Brown, of Bennington, Kansas; Neville Dickson, of Stark City, Mo.; William J. Dickson, of Detroit, Mich.; Samuel B. Dickson, of Kansas City, Mo.; also five grandchildren and two brothers, J. M. Pew, of Higginsville, Mo.; and J. W. Pew, of Denton, Montana. Early in life, Mrs. Dickson united with the Baptist church, remaining steadfast to that faith, through the remainder of her life. The funeral was held here at the Baptist church, and was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Richard L. Stratton, of Mound City. The remains were laid to rest by the side of her husband in the Forest City cemetery.

Card of Thanks.
